Dear Golden Rule,

In 1958 I took the baton from you to sail into the Pacific Proving Grounds. In 2019-2020 I hoped to sail in tandem with you throughout the Pacific to Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Since I am indisposed at the moment, I am handing back the baton with regret—but also with anticipation for what you will do with it. If someone finds a way and the means to “raise me from the ashes” again, I hope to sail with you in the future--someday, somewhere.

With gratitude from the other half of the tag team,
